'Middlewich going from strength to strength' says Fiona Bruce MP

The new Middlewich cake shop in Wheelock Street, Cakes by Coulson, is yet more evidence that Middlewich is on the up says Fiona Bruce MP.

She visited the newly opened shop this week to congratulate owner and Middlewich resident Roger Coulson and his sister, Jane Edmunds, on the opening of Cakes by Coulson.

Fiona sampled cakes including a Baileys Cream Muffin and Blueberry Cheesecake and declared that they are 'definitely worth the calories!'

Fiona said:

'This stylish cake shop would not be out of place in Regent Street and I congratulate Roger on its style and professionalism'.

Roger's sister, Jane, from Holmes Chapel helps out in the shop and makes hand made cards to go with the special celebratory cakes, which Roger makes.

Roger said:

'We are delighted with the reception we have received since we opened earlier this month and in particular at the number of orders for our special occasion cakes'.

Roger offers a free stand hire and set up service with his special occasion cakes (availability permitting) and is planning to expand soon by opening up part of his premises as a coffee shop. He gets up at 2.30am to start baking and is a professionally trained Airline Steward whilst sister, Jane, is continuing her day job as an Airline Pilot!

Cakes by Coulson is definitely off to a flying start!
